With Regular Season Coming to a Close, Grapplers Look to Districts

lineup for the day.

On Wednesday, February 4, the Mustang wrestlers traveled to Clarke County for their fourth district dual, defeating the Eagles 43-27-the first time Mason has ever defeated Clarke, currently the fifth-ranked team in the state in group A.

Also, the win improved the Mustangs' district record to 3-1 with one district dual remaining.

Winners for the Mustangs on the day were seniors Colin Ehmer (140 lbs.), Devlan Melancon (145 lbs.), Mike Cummings (152 lbs.), Mac Cohe (189 lbs.), Andrew Hipolit (215 lbs.), and Tim Quintyn (275 lbs.), and sophomores Nick Pitas (112 lbs.), Tashdid Kahn (130 lbs.), and Bob Bumgarner (171 lbs.).

The Mustangs' final match of the regular season was last night and the result of which was too late for this edition. Mason was at Strasburg taking on the Rams and Region B rivals Buffalo Gap and Stonewall Jackson at Strasburg.

The Bull Run District tournament will also be held at Strasburg High School on Saturday, February 21.
